Over the past several months Colette Gruber has been on a journey to battle Stage 4 Breast Cancer that has spread to her spine, pelvis, ribs, liver, and armpit.

Colette is a single mother of 5 children who resides in Beachwood and is in need of continuing the treatment that she received at CHIPSA Hospital in Mexico. She is unable to work and she is reliant on family, friends and financial donations to allow her to continue her fight and pay for her daily living expenses.
