We have been reviewing the LOSAP information given to you for the upcoming ballot, and it seems as if the point system given to you is NOT the one the squad approved of. We have been working so hard trying to get this put into place, but with the way it is currently written, it will not benefit any of our members. I know it is asking a lot, but can you please pull the LOSAP from the upcoming ballot so that we can have it written properly for next year? I would hate to put so much work into something that is not worth having at this point. If you have any issues, please feel free to contact me here, or you may call me at 732-996-9316.
